PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On December 14, 2007, the defendant identified as, "Edwin ALVARADO-Escalante, was apprehended by the United States Border Patrol near San Ysidro, California. Record checks revealed the defendant to be a previously deported criminal alien and his criminal history. A State Parole Agent determined the defendant to be in violation of parole and issued a Parole Hold. The defendant was booked into San Diego jail for violation of Section 3056 of the California Penal Code, (Violation of Parole; Felon) and an I-247, (Immigration Hold) was placed. On March 3, 2008, the defendant was referred to United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement custody pending further investigation. An Immigration Agent conducted computer database record checks and reviewed various sources of information confirming the defendant to be a citizen of El Salvador having been deported or removed from the United States on at least one occasion.

A thorough review of official immigration computer database record checks revealed the defendant was most recently ordered deported from the United States, by an Immigration Judge, on or about October 20, 2006, and most recently removed to El Salvador via the Chandler, Arizona, Williams Gateway Airport on December 11, 2006. Record checks further indicate that the defendant has not applied to the Attorney General of the United States or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security for permission to re-enter the United States.

The Automated Biometric Fingerprint Identification System "IDENT" and Automated Fingerprint Identification System "IAFIS" were utilized and compared the defendant's fingerprints to those contained in these databases. The results confirmed the defendant's identity as Edwin ALVARADO-Escalante, a citizen and national of El Salvador. A photograph and a set of fingerprints contained within the official Alien Registration File were also reviewed and compared to the defendant, further confirming his identity.

All information indicates that the defendant is a citizen of El Salvador having been previously removed and has not legal right to enter or reside in the United States.
